Part I: The Mission Statement
Why am I here? What’s my purpose?

- To Serve Others
- To Improve their Quality of Life
- To Provide Access, Mobility, Independence
Focus on the Mission

• A mission statement defines a group’s goals in three important ways:
  • It defines what the group does for its customers.
  • It defines what the group does for its employees.
  • It defines what the group does for the tribal nation community
Mission Statement Primary Function

• Defines
  • What the organization is ➔ Tribal transit
  • Why it exists ➔ To provide transportation, mobility, independence
  • Its reason for being ➔ To meet the transportation needs of the tribe

• Also
  • Define primary customers ➔ The elderly, disabled, school age & commuters to jobs
  • Identify the qualities of services you provide ➔ Safe, reliable, affordable...
  • Describe the geographical area you serve ➔ The tribal nation, counties...
Tribal Transit Mission Statement Importance

• Provides purpose & goals
• Helps establish organizational strategy
• Supports day-to-day management & operations
• Helps guide the manager & staff in their duties
• Supports the Nation’s tribal-wide vision & mission
• Provides inspiration & meaning to customers & employees

UTE Tribe Public Transit
Mission Statement:

UTE tribe public transit is here to provide a safe, affordable, and comfortable ride for all those in need of public transportation.
The mission of Stillaguamish Tribal Transit Services is to assist individuals, families, and the Stillaguamish Community with their transportation needs, and to provide transit service to Tribal facilities and businesses.

STTS is committed to providing transportation services of the highest quality by a well-trained, genuinely caring staff of experienced professionals. By assisting one individual, or one family at a time, we build a community of caring for one individual, or one family at a time.
Pelivan Mission Statement:

Pelivan Transit is committed to providing safe and reliable transportation to all people with mobility needs in the Pelivan Transit service territory. Riders will be treated as individuals with dignity at all times, regardless of race, creed, color, sex, age, ancestry, national origin, religion or disability.
Along With Pelivan Vision & Goals

• Vision: Pelivan Transit is committed to developing a mobility management system that includes area human services, aging agencies, tribes, providers, and businesses that addresses the gaps and barriers in transportation in the northeastern Oklahoma region.

• Goals:
  - Develop a Mobility Management System through a Central Dispatching Service. Identify the gaps and barriers of transportation needs in the communities. Educate Seniors about transportation options.
  - Develop Alternative Fuel infrastructure for fueling options.
  - Develop innovative funding sources to expand transportation services.
  - Develop a comprehensive program addressing transportation safety.
Exercise: Mission Statement’s Service Qualities

• Use the handout titled “Examples of Tribal Transit Mission Statements.”

• Read each statement & circle those qualities, adjectives, purposes & descriptions that enhance tribal transportation that:
  • Most fit your transportation service;
  • Have the most meaning to you; or
  • You feel are most important to you or your transit system.

• Form into a discussion group around you.

• Pick one word & discuss what that descriptive word means in tribal transit operations and service or what it takes to achieve it.
Descriptive Word Example ➔ What It Takes to Achieve this Quality

- Pre-Trip Inspections
- Preventive Maintenance Inspections
- Transit Asset Management
- Safe & Capable
- Trust & Confidence
- Friendly
- Repaired Properly
- Well Trained Drivers
- Efficient Scheduling
- In Contact with the Office
- Supervised Service
Part II: Importance of Tribal Transit Teamwork
Tribal Transit and The Team Concept

• Definition of team: A group of individuals that come together as a team to achieve a common goal ➔ the TT mission

• Tribal culture reference: tribal mutuality
  • As a tribal value, attitude, and behavior, mutualism permeates everything in the traditional Indian social fabric.
  • Mutualism promotes a sense of belonging and solidarity with group members in cooperating to gain group security and consensus.
  • Mutuality relates also family connections & consciousness.

• A Common Goal – Successful teamwork is the ability to work together toward a common vision
• Definition: Teamwork is generally understood as the willingness of a group of people to work together to achieve a common aim. It is a value. For example, we often use the phrase:” he or she is a good team player”. This means someone has the interests of the team at heart, working for the good of the team (Mutuality)

• Chemistry: Beyond the policies, procedures, & processes. “Chemistry” of a team is the hidden ingredient

Importance of Teamwork in Tribal Transit

• Smaller systems require that managers & staff wear & share many hats.
• Effective small operations require leveraging human resources & skills.
• Many staff members are crossed trained to perform different functions.
• An organization thrives when it has a diverse team of people who can contribute individual ideas & ways – to be creative & innovative.
• Teamwork helps solve problems, while collaboration within a group can help solve difficult problems.
• Brainstorming is a good opportunity for the team to exchange ideas & produce creative ways of doing things.
Role of Tribal Transit Managers in Building an Effective Team

- Build trust and respect
- Be true to your word
- Encourage informal social gatherings
